Cllr Greg Britton advised on the outcomes of the planning meetings held on the 11th and 25th March. These were noted.

8. Norfolk Association of Local Councils.

(a) The Council noted the Devolution Consultation and agreed that Councillors should respond on an individual basis.

(b) Norfolk ALC Board nominations. None were none forthcoming for submission; however, Cllr Shelagh Gurney was currently Hellesdon Parish Councils representative on the NALC members committee and wished to be re-nominated for this position at the May AGM of the Council.

(c) Renewal of the membership of the Norfolk ALC. After much discussion including consideration of alternatives, it was AGREED to re-new the membership in accordance with the fee statement for the financial year 25/26.

Based on the number of electorate number of 9040 the membership fee would be:-

Norfolk ALC - £738.79

National ALC - £753.94

Total fee - £1492.73

This was AGREED by majority with one abstention. Proposed by Cllr Shelagh Gurney and Seconded by Cllr Ian Duckett.

9. To consider the format of Minutes in Council meetings.

Cllr David Britcher had requested this item to be placed on the agenda. He explained that he would like the council to consider adding first names to councillor salutations on formal minutes of the council as this was more appropriate. After much discussion Councillors AGREED that this should now be the case for all minutes of the council.
