8. Summer Fayre update on current progress

Rides and Stalls

There are currently 57 paid stalls, with a possible 13 more to be confirmed. This includes the rides, with 34 stalls allocated to craft and charity organisations. There will be 7–8 trailers, which will require power, and approximately 100 ft of space will need to be allocated for the rides. The committee is awaiting confirmation from the SOS Bus regarding the amount of space required. Other stalls will require a maximum space of 3m x 3m. Cllr Roy Forder has booked the Fire and Police services and will also contact Red Cross. Connie Ackers will contact NARS to provide first aid.

Arena

Stubb's Farm can attend with various farm animals including Alpacas, sheep and goats. It was proposed by Cllr David Britcher and 2nd by Cllr Mel Maidstone and all agreed, that we book them for 3 hours. This would be held in the Parish Council office gardens. Punch and Judy show on the lawns was proposed by Cllr Roy Forder and 2nd by Cllr David Britcher. Awaiting clarification on how many shows to have, and price to be confirmed. Dog shows will have various categories. Councillors and officers were encouraged to enter their own dogs. Dog prizes and rosettes would be purchased from the events budget; . Dog bowls will need to be provided. The running order of events will be confirmed shortly. Welly Wangling game will also be added to the event. Officers to clarify with Cosmos Circus about holding the show in the arena for 2pm.

Beer Tent

The committee is awaiting a response from Norfolk Raiders regarding the beer provision. Discussions have also taken place with Stable Bar, which supplies a fully equipped converted horse box serving beer and cocktails. It was proposed by Cllr Mel Maidstone and seconded by Cllr David Britcher that Norfolk Raiders provide the cider, and Stable Bar provide the beer and cocktails; this was agreed by all.

Administration

Public liability forms will be brought by stallholders on the day and collected by Connie Ackers. The terms and conditions form should be revised and amended accordingly. Connie Ackers will update excel spreadsheet of stall holders and resend out to the committee and officers. Air Cadets to be contacted to offer help on the day as volunteers. They would need to provide a safeguarding person to ensure regulations are met.

Other Business

It was agreed to open the Café for hot drinks and cakes. Bottled water to be provided for free to all volunteers and staff.
